Workshop-cum-Training Programme on Pharmacovigilance for NABH-Accredited Hospitals in Jharkhand State

Indian Pharmacopoeia Commission, National Coordination Centre (NCC) for Pharmacovigilance Programme of India (PvPI), has signed a Memorandum of Understanding with National Accreditation Board for Hospitals and Healthcare Providers (NABH) for effective implementation of ADR-reporting.

To train NABH-Accredited Hospitals staff on Pharmacovigilance, one day Workshop-cum-Training programme is scheduled in Ranchi on 11th October 2018.

This Training Programme intends to provide a platform for the NABH-Accredited Hospitals/ Non NABH-Accredited Hospitals of this region to understand the systems and procedures involved in ADR-reporting and relevant practices in Pharmacovigilance. The faculties from ADR Monitoring Centres and NCC-PvPI will provide hands-on training on the subject.

We request you to consider nominating/sponsoring suitable personnel from your organization for this programme.
